Hip Hop for Kids: Pop! Lock! and Break!

Let your household's hip-hoppers (ages 7 to 16) learn the hottest new dance moves from this instructional DVD, which comes with a bonus dance-music CD that should have kids bustin' moves through the holidays.

$25, at www.hiphop4kids.net.

Shadow Magnet

Children in the neighborhood can play together with this refrigerator magnet by moving it through the positions—first through fifth. Popovers Plums, Amsterdam Ave. (496-9586).

Ballet Kit Bag

Tiny dancers can cart their stuff to ballet class and study their moves on the way with this tote. $35, at E.A.T., 2062 Madison Ave (212-861-2644).

How to Be an African Dancer

Your kid can take a spin in emulation of the young dancers in Bétoto Yetu with this package (for ages 3 to 12) from the Harlem-based children's African-dance troupe. It includes a makeup kit, an instructional DVD, a book and—it's all in the details, baby—a grass skirt. $40, at www.dance4children.org.
